- (4) a person claiming under these Rules

shall be referred to a sole arbiter appointed by agreement between the Society and such member or person or, in default of agreement, appointed by the President of the Law Society of Scotland.

GENERAL MEETINGS

20 ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

- (1) In every year an annual general meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Board shall decide but so that not more than fifteen months elapse between one annual general meeting and the next.
- (2) The business of an annual general meeting shall be the consideration of the accounts and balance sheet and the reports of the Board and, where applicable, the Auditor for the last preceding accounting year, the election of Directors, the election of Council members, the appointment, where applicable, of the Auditor and such other business as the Board shall decide.

21 SPECIAL GENERAL MEETINGS

- (1) All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called special general meetings.
- (2) The Board may at any time convene a special general meeting and shall do so upon receiving a requisition in writing to that effect signed by not less than 10% of the members and stating the purpose for which the meeting is required to be convened. If within twenty-one days after receipt by the Board of a valid requisition no notices duly convening a special general meeting for the purpose stated in the requisition have been sent to members then the members who signed the requisition may convene a special general meeting for that purpose and shall be reimbursed by the Society for all expenses reasonably incurred thereby.
- (3) No business shall be transacted at a special general meeting other than that set out in the notice convening the meeting and any matters arising therefrom.

22 NOTICE

- (1) Every general meeting shall be convened by delivering to every member at their address as shown in the Register and to the Auditor of the Society not less than fourteen clear days' notice thereof in writing specifying the day, hour and place of the meeting and the business to be transacted. In the case of an annual general meeting, the notice shall designate it as such and shall be accompanied by a copy of the accounts for the last preceding financial year and any report of the Auditor thereon.
- (2) The accidental omission to give any member notice of a general meeting or the non-receipt of a notice by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting.
- (3) A general meeting not convened in compliance with paragraph (1) shall be deemed to have been properly convened if all the members of the Society are present in person or by proxy and agree that the meeting shall be deemed to have been properly convened.

23 QUORUM

- (1) No business shall be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum is present. Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this Rule, a quorum shall be members present in person numbering 10% of the total membership or such other number of members as shall be determined from time to time by resolution of the Society in general meeting, but in any event not less than two.
- (2) If within thirty minutes of the time appointed for a meeting a quorum is not present then the meeting if convened upon the requisition of members shall be dissolved but in any other case shall stand adjourned to a time and place to be decided by the Board, being not more than fourteen days later. Not less than seven days' notice shall be given to every member of the day, hour and place of the adjourned meeting and the business to be transacted and if at that meeting a quorum is not present within thirty minutes of the appointed time then the persons present shall be a quorum.

- 24 CHAIRPERSON At every general meeting the Chairperson or, in their absence, the Vice-Chairperson of the Board shall preside. If within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for the meeting neither the Chairperson nor the Vice Chairperson is present then the members present in person or by proxy shall choose a Director or, in the absence of all the Directors, one of those present and entitled to vote to preside.

- 25 ADJOURNMENTS The chairperson of a meeting with the consent of the meeting may and if so directed by the meeting shall adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place. No business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the original meeting.

26 VOTING

(1) Subject to any provision in these Rules or in any statute or statutory instrument requiring a vote on any matter to be taken in a special way or requiring a special majority for any matter, a resolution put to the vote at a general meeting shall be decided by a simple majority and on a show of hands unless, before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands, a poll is demanded by the Chairperson or by not less than three members present in person or by proxy. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

(2) Unless a poll is so demanded and the demand is not withdrawn a declaration by the chairperson of the meeting that on a show of hands a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

(3) No poll shall be demanded on the election of the chairperson of a meeting or on a question of adjournment. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken in such manner and at such time as the chairperson of the meeting directs and any business other than that upon which the poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

(4) On a show of hands every member present in person shall have one vote and on a poll every member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote. In the case of an equality of votes the chairperson of the meeting shall have a second or a casting vote.

(5) No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any person to vote except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is cast or tendered and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairperson of the meeting whose decision shall be final and binding.

27 REPRESENTATION OF BODIES CORPORATE AND PARTNERSHIPS Every member which is a body corporate or a partnership may appoint an individual to act as its representative at general meetings. Every such appointment shall be made by written notification to the Society and may be revoked in the like manner. A duly appointed representative shall be entitled to attend general meetings and to speak and vote in place of the member which appointed them and when present at a general meeting shall be treated for all purposes of these Rules as being that member present in person.

28 PROXIES Any member or duly appointed representative of a member may appoint a proxy to attend a meeting and speak and vote on their behalf. Every such appointment shall be notified to the Society in writing signed by the member or representative making it or under authority conferred to them and deposited 48 hours before the meeting at the registered office of the Society. A proxy need not be a member.

COUNCIL

29 The Society shall have a Council consisting of member businesses and other key stakeholders involved in the work of the Society. The Council shall act as a representative forum and a means of convening the diverse range of interests encompassed by the Society's activities, it shall debate issues and needs and identify action that the Society should take in response.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Council is not the Board of Directors and individual Council members are not directors in law.
